(a) No Sir. There is no drastic influx of refugees into India from across the borders during the last three months. However, there are reports that some Bangladeshi nationals belonging to minority communities have entered into India.

(b) As per reports, about 851 Bangladeshis have entered into India during last three months. As far as Afghan and Pakistani nationals are concerned, no illegal influx is noticed. They are entering the country on valid visas issued by our missions abroad.

(c) The Government of India is not incurring any expenditure on Afghan, Bangladesh and Pakistan refugees.

(d) As and when illegal migrants are found they are deported as per the provisions of Foreigners Act. Powers have been delegated to all the State Governments/UTs to detect and deport the illegal immigrants.
